Appendix 1

The objective of this grant stream is to support small businesses within sectors that were largely or completely unable to operate during the 2021 lockdown such as those in the health and personal services, recreational, tourism and creative industries sectors.

To be approved for a quick response grant the applicant:

- must be classified under one of the business sectors listed in Appendix 1
- must be able to demonstrate that the business was largely or entirely unable to operate during Lockdown Six between late July and late October/early November 2021.

This list details the business sectors that were eligible for Victorian Government support during the lockdown in 2021 and utilises ANZSIC industry classes, with amendments to reflect the objective of this grant stream.

This is an overarching list using the ANZSIC industry class definitions. If you are unsure if you fall under one of the definitions below, please contact your business support officer at business@hobsonsbay.vic.gov.au
